566. SHRI MUKHTIAR SINGH MA[illegible] the Minister of INDUS[illegible] pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that Gas Cylinders are being manufactured by a number [illegible] Private Sector Companies [illegible]y, and

(b) if so, what is the name of each company [illegible]mber of gas cylinders manufact[illegible] each private Sector and Public Sector Company during the last four years?

[illegible] STATE IN THE [illegible]STRIAL DE[illegible] THE MINISTRY OF [illegible] (SHRI M. [illegible]LAM): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) A Statement is attached. [See Appendix CXLIX Annexure No. 24]

Oil Reserves in the Country

567. S[illegible] I RENUKA CHOWDHURY: Will the Minister of PETROLEUM AND NATURAL GAS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that the oil reserves in the country will according to a survey conducted recently, exhaust in the [illegible] if the present rate of drilling is maintained;

(b) if so, what steps Government are taking in this regard; and

(c) if not, for how many years the present oil reserves will last?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF PETROLEUM AND NATURAL GAS (SHRI BRAHM DUTT): (a) to (c) The balance recoverable crude oil reserve as on January 1, 1988 was about 640 million tonnes as against about 500 million tonnes on January 1, 1985. The reserves undergo continuous changes depending upon new accretions and depletions. Continuous exploration efforts are made to discover new reserves. There is no question of exhaustion of the oil reserves within a particular time frame so long the rate of accretions to reserves is higher than the rate of depletion of reserves.

Action Against LPG Dealers for late Supply of LPG Cylinders

568. SHRI ANAND PRAKASH GAUTAM: Will the Minister of PETROLEUM AND NATURAL GAS be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that there has been an active shortage of LPG cylinders in the capital particularly in Gole Market area during the months of January and February, 1989; if so, what are the reasons therefor;

(b) whether it is also a fact that the consumers have yet to face great hardship as the distributors are supplying the LPG cylinders only after two to three weeks period;

(c) if so, what action Government propose to take against the distributors who are not supplying the cylinders to the consumers according to priority dates as entered in their registers;

(d) whether it is also a fact that the Indian Oil Corporation authorities have not taken adequate steps at appropriate time to tackle the situation while they were aware of the fact that the workers at bottling plants were going on strike; and

(e) if so, what action Government propose to take against the officials responsible for not taking action in time?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF PETROLEUM AND NATURAL GAS (SHRI BRAHM DUTT): (a) to (e) A backlog in supply of LPG refills had developed recently in the Union Territory of Delhi, includings Gole Market area, on account of transporter's and industrial relations problems, leading to disruption of product movement. With the measures already initiated, the situation has since considerably improved. The supply position is being closely monitored by the Oil Industry with a view to ensuring regular LPG supplies to consumers.

Complaints Against Gas Agencies for Completing the Customers to Purchase Hot Plates

569. SHRI ANAND PRAKASH GAUTAM: Will the Minister of PETROLEUM AND NATURAL GAS be pleased to state:

(a) what are the names of the Gas Agencies against whom complaints have been received for compelling the customers to purchase hot plates at the time of releasing of new connections from their agencies during the Calendar year 1988 in the Capital;

(b) whether Government have taken any action against these agencies; and

(c) if so, what are the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF PETROLEUM AND NATURAL GAS (SHRI BRAHM DUTT): (a) A statement is enclosed; (See below).

(b) and (c) Complaints received against LPG distributors about their pressurising new allottees of LPG connections to purchase gas stoves/burners from them are investigated and customers' grievances redressed. All distributors are required to prominently display a notice in their showrooms that it is not obligatory for a consumer to purchase stoves/burners from the distributor releasing the connection. Action against the erring distributors is taken in line with the Marketing Discipline Guidelines.
